Offer deadline: The seller has requested that all offers be submitted by 5pm on Sunday, November 16th. Brimming with timeless charm and opportunity, this classic Cape Cod invites possibility – ideal for buyers ready to make it uniquely theirs, or investors seeking rental or renovation potential. Seldom-found features include double lot with a fenced, flat, and private rear yard, a detached garage with electricity, and a rear parking pad for off-street parking. There is a cozy covered front porch and a deck in the back. Many big improvements have already been made. The new roof in 2019 and the newly installed central HVAC/furnace in 2020 help control costs. Forced air natural gas heat adds comfort and savings as well. High ceilings and solid hardwood floors throughout create a classic look that you can refinish for a fresh feel. The first floor offers a living room with access to a separate dining room that passes through to the kitchen. This provides potential to create an open-concept, first-floor living area. There are also two bedrooms, a full bath, and a sunroom off the kitchen. Upstairs, a third bedroom pairs with an ample storage zone for gear, seasonal items, or even an office nook. The basement provides a large rec room, full bathroom, separate utility room, laundry room, and storage room or workshop. Built to last, this home features many major updates already made and offers room for additional improvements as well as value-add potential. Hamilton Hills offers a calm residential feel that supports steady demand. Home sold strictly AS IS.
