Residential on 2.65 Acres

PORT TOBACCO SHORES, Port Tobacco, MD

Perched gracefully on an elevated site overlooking the tranquil Port Tobacco River, this timeless Colonial residence blends classic architectural charm with refined modern living. Set amid mature trees and lush surroundings, the property offers serene privacy just six miles from the historic town of La Plata—the county seat of Charles County.

Inside, sophistication meets comfort. The gourmet kitchen is a true showpiece, featuring quartz countertops, custom cabinetry, a generous center island, designer flooring, and a butler's pantry—perfect for effortless entertaining. The ambiance continues throughout with built-ins, thoughtful finishes, and a cozy woodstove for those crisp winter evenings.

Step outside to enjoy three inviting patios and a gracious front porch, ideal for savoring river breezes and picturesque sunsets. Practical updates include a newer HVAC system (approximately five years old), gas hot water heater, and newly installed leaf guard gutters and downspouts for worry-free maintenance.

An extra-large detached garage offers exceptional space for vehicles, hobbies, or storage. Nearby, explore the historic Port Tobacco Courthouse and enjoy easy access to a local boat ramp for river adventures.

A residence of rare comfort and classic distinction—comfortably classy in every sense.
